Piecemeal Housing in 6th Turned Down; Snow Bill, Rural Roads, Heat Discussed

New Plan Is Asked On Budget Repairs, Wages Are Under Fire

Payment of a snow-removal bill of $46,356.32, delayed for some time, was approved by a 7-6 party vote last night, after much argument based on minority party claims of improper budgetary practice.

A resolution by James K. Ryan, (D) 10th ward, hitting at the county charge against the city for town roads, was adopted, and one by Richard V. Roth, (R) 12th ward, asking for a law regulating heat provided by landlords and others was referred to the laws and rules committee.

Would Show Old Figures
The aldermen also favored a resolution by Edwin Radel, (D) third ward to have figures of past years shown in this year's preparation of the budget, and approved a $75,000 tax anticipation note pending collection of a balance due in taxes.

A minority report with the snow removal budget note item which is a claim against the city from the board of public works, dealt with "the matter of salaries for regular employees, and the large amounts charged to maintenance of equipment."

Ask New Budget Practice
Minority aldermen asked for a new budget practice, and Fifth Ward Alderman Samuel J. Perry, who voted to pay the snow removal bill, said he had been promised by the mayor that the change would be made, and if it isn't done when the 1957 budget is made, he declared, "We won't pass it. That's one way to solve it."

There is "no pro-rata charge for repairs in our Board of Public Works, according to Superintendent Steding," he said. "It almost seems to me that any piece of city equipment, which needs repair, has automatically been used for snow removal. It takes great ingenuity to use some of the equipment for snow removal whose repair has been charged to this account."

Roth Says State Approves
Roth noted that the bookkeeping practice involved was one approved by the state board of audit and control, and it was one used in the past when either party was in power.

Alderman Hirschell Mayes, (R) first ward said he was "an authority on snow removal," because 14 inches of snow had been removed from his own sidewalk last winter. The year was worse than others, and yet the cost was (Continued on Page 25, Col. 5)

Trading Stamp Report Is Going to Governor

Albany, Oct. 3 (AP)—Gov. Harriman will receive a report on a conference at which trading stamps were termed both "a racket" and a service.

Dr. Persia Campbell, Harriman's consumer counsel, called the session yesterday for what she termed a "fact-finding" discussion on a "confused picture" of the use of the stamps in New York.

She said she would be "days" compiling data and could not say if or when there would be further action.

More than 200 persons crowded into the executive chamber at the State House for the meeting, called at the governor's request.

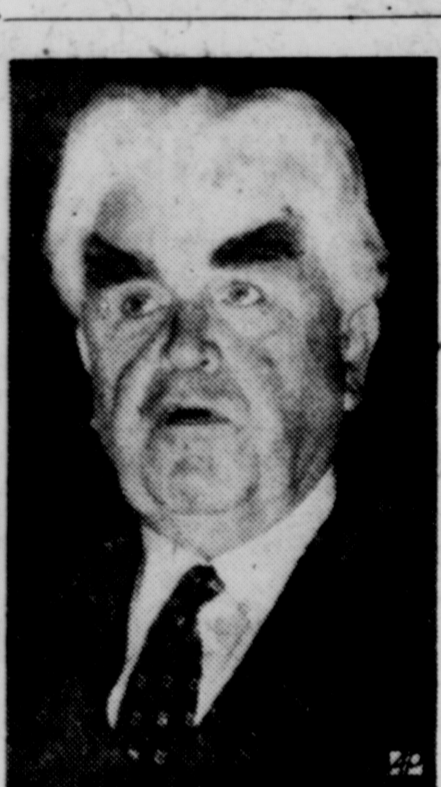

Representatives of trading-stamp companies held that use of the stamps did not result in higher retail prices and were the equivalent of a cash discount for shoppers.

Representatives of merchant groups contended the consumer paid for the stamp program and had no guarantee the stamps would be redeemed.

Under normal procedures, one stamp is given for each 10 cents worth of goods purchased. Shoppers save them for redemption in specified amounts for such items as household appliances, and jewelry.

Individuals and comments heard at the conference included:

William G. Hildebrand, executive secretary, New York State Good Merchants Assn., which claims 5,400 members: Stamps add to merchants' costs, lead to higher prices—"You can't give something for nothing"—and

NOT MUCH TO SAY—Usually loquacious, roaring John L. Lewis, who at past conventions has castigated those he called "the high and the mighty," was the epitome of self-restraint Oct. 2 as he told the United Mine Workers delegates "the outlook in the coal fields is rosy and atomic energy is a long way off because of its enormous cost. Polls Are Listed for Registration

A list of polling places in the Kingston area is being published by The Freeman as a service to voters—both Republican and Democrat.

Registration days for the city of Kingston will be Friday and Saturday, Oct. 5 and 6, and Friday and Saturday, Oct. 12 and 13. Voters may register between 10 a. m. and 10 p. m. on October 5, 6 and 12, and from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. on October 13.

For the county, registration will be from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. Saturday, Oct. 6, and from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m. Saturday, Oct. 13.

Broadway Guard Rail Given Approval, Proposed by Mayor

Common Council action last night approved a $1,000 fund for a temporary guard rail and signs on the Broadway hill where houses have been damaged in traffic mishaps.

The proposal was made to the aldermen in a letter by Mayor Frederick H. Stang, who said more permanent safety measures for the area are under consideration.

Woman Asks $25,000
A claim of $25,000 by Margaret O'Neil, of 429 Abell street, for injuries suffered when a fire truck allegedly forced a car in which she was riding on a sidewalk near Cornell fire station last July 8, was referred to the corporation counsel, Thomas S. Saccoman was listed as the attorney.

Mayor Stang noted in his letter that a "serious condition has existed on Broadway at the turn near Stuyvesant street.

To correct it, he said, actually necessitates a change in the grade of the curve. This proposal he said is to be presented for later consideration "after a complete study has been made and the cost estimated."

Meanwhile, he said, "in order to avoid the accidents that have occurred at the turn with damages to the houses in the vicinity, it has been decided to erect a guard rail fence, and cause to be erected certain signs warning motorists of the dangerous conditions that exist when the pavement is wet or icy."

Precaution Listed
Approximately $1,000 would be needed, he said, to erect some 263 feet of guard rail fence, reinforced concrete posts, labor and a large scotchlight sign on Broadway with a flashing light and painted warning signs on the streets surface. He asked that the money be transferred from the fund known as the Industrial and Convention Bureau, Miscellaneous and Contingent, to Traffic Control.

Sixth Ward Alderman George P. Norton Jr., in asking council support of the proposal, recalled the accident of "a week ago last Sunday" which damaged the Guadagnola and McCloskey houses. He noted that the Tubby house, below, had been previously damaged and that Mrs. William Tubby, who suffered shock, was being hospitalized, and was "still nervous, each time she hears squeaking brakes in the area."

Cites Other Suggestions
Alderman Arthur Smith, eighth ward, said the work mentioned, was only part of what should be done in the area, and he noted that several previous suggestions had been (Continued on Page 6, Col. 4)

Ulster Approves 1 Housing Development, Others Wait

A proposed housing development was given final approval Tuesday night by the Town of Ulster planning board and progress reported toward final approval of several others, including the Whittier project in Flatbush.

In a five-hour session attended by approximately 30 town taxpayers public hearings on four housing developments were heard by the board.

The proposed Applegate development on Lucas avenue extension was approved.

The board, with Dr. William Pretsch, chairman, presiding, temporarily withheld approval of Rolling Meadows, located partly in the town of Hurley, pending agreement between the two townships on several minor details, it was reported.

The Cherry Hill project on Sawkill road was referred to Robert Mickle, town planning consultant, a member of Clarke Associates, for further study.

Approval of a 106-home section of the proposed Whittier development was withheld pending resolution of several minor questions, it was reported.

Whittier posted bond in the amount of $220,000 last night to cover the cost of a proposed sewage plant for the development. It was announced some time ago that ultimately several thousand homes would be built by Masterplanned, Inc., including a shopping center.

Whittier also posted bond in amount of $42,120 to cover cost of proposed road construction in a small section of the project (2A) consisting of 106 homes.

These performance bonds are issued by bonding companies and are made out to the Town of Ulster for protection of the township. Estimates of cost of construction are made by town officials, these estimates constituting the basis of bond amounts.

Sabino Acres on the Neighborhood road, Lake Katrine, was reported almost ready but the planning board has not received approval of the water layout from the town engineer. A public hearing was held recently on the plan submitted by Sabino Acres.

A preliminary sketch submitted by Hucyon Park development in Ruby for a third section of its program was referred to the planning consultant for study.

Another preliminary sketch, that for a small development proposed for the Sawkill road, was submitted by Joseph Lohmeier of Lake Katrine. The planning board also referred this to the planning consultant.

A map submitted by Hillside Acres on Miller's Lane extension for a second section of its development was referred to the planning consultant for approval.

This section was filed with the Ulster county clerk last year without submission to the Town of Ulster planning board for approval as required by law. This oversight has necessitated its re-filing.

A first section of Hillside Acres, under construction by the Hastans Realty Corp., was reported to have been submitted to the Town of Ulster planning board for approval.

Supervisor Harry Snyder (R), town of Marlborough, a member of Hastans Realty Corp., is awaiting action of the grand jury on a charge of illegal subdivision or streets in a third section of the proposed development. No map has been submitted to the planning board in connection with that particular section, it was reported.

Also attending the meeting last night were Mr. Mickle, Supervisor Percy Bush and Town Attorney Louis DiDonna.

Dodgers, Yankees 2-2

Brooklyn, Oct. 3—The Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees were tied at 2-2 after two innings of play in the first game of the 1956 World Series before a sellout crowd of 34,000 people at Ebbets Field, including President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Mickey Mantle's sixth World Series homer with Enos Slaughter on base gave the Yankees a 2-0 lead in the first inning and Whitey Ford, a 19-6 hurler during the season, set down the world champions one-two-three in the opening frame.

Ford on Ropes
The Ebbets Field jinx on left-handers had Ford on the ropes in the second, however.

Jackie Robinson opened the inning with a long homer into the left field stands. Gil Hodges singled to center and scored when Carl Furillo drove deep to left center for a two-base hit. Roy Campanella sent Bauer back into right center for his long drive, Furillo going to third on the play.

Sandy Amaro fled to Mantle in center and a perfect throw to the plate held Furillo at third. Maglie ended the inning by striking out.

First Inning
Yankees—Bauer was thrown out.

Troopers Using Unmarked Cars

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—The state police today began using unmarked patrol cars on New York's highways in an effort to crack down on traffic-law violators.

The move was announced by Gov. Harriman, who emphasized that most state police cars would continue to be marked for ready identification.

"I believe," the governor said in a statement, "experience has shown that more general use of unmarked cars in the state highway patrol is necessary to control willful violators of the rules of the road."

Robinson to Hodges for first out of 1956 World Series. Slaughter lined a sharp grounder to first and beat it out for a single. Mantle exploded his sixth World Series homer over right field screen into Bedford avenue, scoring Slaughter ahead of him to give Yankees a 2-0 lead. Maglie appeared to be having some trouble with his control as he walked Berra on a 3-2 pitch. Skowron and McDougald ended inning by striking out. Two runs, two hits, one left.

Dodgers—Carey took Gilliam's bounder and threw to first for the first out. Reese hit to the opposite field and Bauer took away his bid for a base hit after running into the wall. Snider ended the inning when he was thrown out. Skowron to Ford who covered first on the play. No runs, no hits, none left.

Second Inning
Yankees—Martin raised a high foul in back of the plate and Campanella took it for the first out. Both Carey and Ford struck out. The two strikeouts gave Maglie a total of four for the first two innings. No runs, no hits, none left.

Dodgers—Robinson unloaded his second World Series homer into the left field stands, cutting Yankees lead to 2-1. It was the first hit off Whitey Ford. Hodges singled to center, scoring Slaughter. Furillo cracked a drive into left center, scoring Hodges with the tying run. Furillo was credited with a double Campanella fled deep to Bauer in deep right center, Furillo going to third after the catch. Amoros fled to Mantle who made the catch and made a perfect throw to the plate holding Furillo to end the inning. Two runs, three hits one left.

Sal Maglie carried the Brooklyn Dodgers hopes against left-handed Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees today in the World Series opener on a clear, cool afternoon at Ebbets Field.

Long before the arrival of President Eisenhower, the vanguard of an expected sellout crowd of 36,000 had begun to arrive. A band tooted away in centerfield while the Brooks

Long, Cold Winter Is Forecast

"Get plenty of fuel on hand," the Bearsville weather prophet warned today. "It's going to be a long cold winter ahead."

Tom Shultis, at popular request, is back again with his long-range forecast.

He foresees in his crystal ball an autumn and winter with wide ranges of high and low temperatures. He says there will be "some nice weather in October and November but mostly cold after November 20."

Light Storms, He Says
The crystal gazer also sees "numerous storms, both snow and rain." But take heart! "Most all the storms will be light."

The weather sage forecasts snow in November and "possibly in October."

The area can also look forward with anticipation to a "white Christmas."

Plenty of Wind
The greatest number of storms will be in December and January. There will also be "plenty of wind." The clearest weather will be in February and March and the coldest month will be February.

"Now friends," the weather prophet consoles, "this weather coming up will be changeable. If you don't like it one time just wait a few days and possibly it will be something you like!"

Right About Frost
As for Mr. Shultis' last long-range predictions, remember he warned people last April 9 not to plant their gardens or put out (Continued on Page 17, Col. 6)

150 Hear Panel About Issues in Nov. Campaign

Over 150 people attended the panel meeting last evening at George Washington School to hear about issues of the political campaign. The program sponsored by the Public Affairs Committee of the Kingston YWCA was arranged to remind voters of their responsibility in the coming election.

Representatives of both major political parties appeared on the platform and gave their views.

Earl F. Soper, superintendent of schools, as moderator for the four-member panel praised the two-party form of government.

Samuel S. Stratton, Democrat, mayor of Schenectady, said the present national administration delegated leadership to subordinates. He said security had deteriorated and cited conditions in Red China and Korea. It is a business man's government, he said, catering to one class. He criticized the "farm problem."

Party Holds Up Naming Successor to Plunket

A successor to Thomas J. Plunket, who on September 28 submitted his resignation as Ulster County Democratic Chairman to the executive committee of the party, will probably not be named until after the November election.

Following receipt of the resignation by the executive committee a meeting of the committee was held and it has recommended appointment of a successor be postponed until after election. Members of the committee feel this is not an "appropriate time" to elect a successor and former City Assessor James H. Betts, long a leader in Democratic political activities, has been selected by the executive committee as campaign director to co-ordinate, along with other members of the Democratic County Committee, the activities of the campaign. Other members of the County Committee are Norman Keller, secretary, and Joseph J. Koenig, treasurer.

Under the rules of the Democratic County Committee, the resignation of Thomas Plunket was submitted to Judge Culliton on September 28. The rules provide that the executive committee, named by the county chairman, shall meet and organize. A meeting of the committee was called by Chairman Culliton. On the executive committee is Joseph H. Forman, John J. Gaffney, William A. Kelly and Joseph J. Koenig. Party rules also provide that the chairman of the executive committee may appoint additional persons to the committee. Judge Culliton has named to the committee Mrs. Harriet Kern of New Paltz and U. Parker Decker of Lloyd, both members of the State Democratic Committee.

Today Judge Culliton said he contemplates naming additional members to the committee as permitted by party rules.

The first meeting of the executive committee was held Sunday evening and a second meeting of the committee was held last evening at which time the consensus of opinion of committee members was to postpone selection of a successor to Mr. Plunket until later.

Pending election of a county chairman the Executive Committee will work closely with party leaders and with County Coordinator James H. Betts.

Chairman Culliton said today all county committeemen were being notified by letter of the decision of the executive committee and its recommendation to postpone selection of the county chairman until later.

WholeArea Project Is Demanded Other Site Could Be Selected Here

A public housing project in the sixth ward without other development there is not acceptable to the state, the Common Council was informed last night through a letter which arrived late in the session.

Joseph P. McMurray, state housing head, wrote that he "could not feel justified in approving" a housing project for the sixth ward unless the project were treated as one step in total development of the section, which, he felt, had reached such a state of "deterioration" as to make piecemeal rehabilitation inadvisable. He indicated, however, that another site could still be approved.

Interim School Report
A committee, which had been named to study the proposal to build a junior high school in the Dietz Memorial Stadium area, gave an interim report without recommendations, but indicated that some thought is also being given to future use of the stadium.

Housing, as first planned for the Kingston Park area, lost 13-0 at the Sept. 4 council session, and minority members then asked that a report on city planning be given first.

First Ward Alderman Hirschell Mayes, (R) then proposed that any action on housing be taken first in the sixth ward. This proposal was still open for action at a Sept. 10 recessed meeting, but the aldermen delayed action on the favor of a committee report on planning.

Meeting Oct. 10
Alderman James K. Ryan, (D) 10th ward, last night wanted to know why that report was not given, and Alderman Richard V. Roth, (R) 12th ward, called his attention to the meeting set by Mayor Frederick H. Stang for Oct. 10 at which area town officials and planning groups are expected to discuss area planning.

A copy of the letter inviting the officials to attend the session in the city hall was read at the meeting.

Letter Is Late
Commissioner McMurray's letter on housing arrived when the session was well under way, and it was necessary for the aldermen to vote on whether to revert back to communications and only Alderman Roth voted against late introduction of the letter, holding that some rule should stand against such late introduction of material from outside sources.

Alderman Edwin Radel, (D) third ward had suggested that the letter might contain points, which the aldermen might want to consider before the next session, which was put over to Nov. 13 because of election day on Nov. 6, and Alderman-at-large John J. Schwenk called for the vote.

Not Good Planning
McMurray's letter said in part: "I regret to inform you that based upon our studies of the entire sixth ward, it would not seem feasible, from the point of view of proper city planning to build a project in the sixth ward area. You will recall that architects, engineers and planners of this division had made a thorough inspection and survey of such ward as a possible site for an urban renewal program. This study was made in conjunction with the proposed public housing project in the Kingston Park area."

"In addition to the study made by our technicians, I myself, inspected the area when I visited Kingston earlier this year. Also, upon receiving notice of the resolution of the council I sent Mr. Albert L. Hecht, of this office, to visit Kingston, and to once again study the sixth ward."

Too Far Gone
In each instance, McMurray said, examination disclosed that "the sixth ward has reached such a state of deterioration as to make it inadvisable to attempt a piecemeal rehabilitation of the area. The entire sixth ward has gone so far downhill as to almost certainly assure the downgrading of any new housing in the ward, unless this housing were coupled with a complete redevelopment or rehabilitation of the ward."

He could not feel justified in approving a project in the ward, he said, "unless I were assured that the erection of a project would be one step in the total redevelopment of the sixth ward." (Continued on Page 6, Col. 6)

Two Parties Are Asked to Back State Pay Boosts

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—An official of the New York State Employees Council No. 50, AFL-CIO, has asked the state's two major political parties to support a program of pay boosts and other benefits for 90,000 state employees.

In letters to Democratic State Chairman Michael Prendergast and Republican State Chairman L. Judson Morhouse, Miss Laura Stadel, council secretary, urged that both parties air their views on improvement "of the economic problems faced by New York's 90,000 state employees."

Miss Stadel said that "while candidates have talked at length about the four-day work week for private industry, holding down the cost of living, parity for farmers, and subsidies and expanding markets for business, no one has yet mentioned the plight of the New York state employee—rapidly being squeezed between a fixed income and a rising cost of living."

Her letters to the two state chairmen urged endorsement of a $500 across-the-board pay increase for all state employees, a maximum 40-hour work week with no loss in take home pay, supplementary social security and a $3,000 life insurance policy for every state employee, to be paid by the state.

Steel Orders Are Tight for Year

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—Steel mill order books are filled tight for the rest of the year and there will be a carryover into the first quarter of next year, Iron Age, weekly steel industry magazine, said today. "Incoming orders are running 10 to 20 per cent ahead of shipments, even though mills are carefully screening inquiries," the magazine said. It added that backlogs exceed 17 weeks at capacity, which assures carryovers into the 1957 first quarter.

Carnegie Audience Howls as Benny Plays

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—Comedian Jack Benny solemnly sawed a fiddle for laughs—and charity—in an unusual "concert" in hallowed Carnegie Hall last night.

Impeccable in white tie and tails, Benny dusted off a borrowed Stradivarius and strode onto the same stage where Heifetz, Kreisler and Elman made musical history.

He tucked the violin under his chin with professional aplomb and prepared to play. But he stopped before he started. He had forgotten his bow.

The audience howled. And so it went as Benny wrestled with Sarasote's woefully difficult "Zigeunerweisen" (Gypsy Airs) and the first movement of Mendelssohn's violin concerto.

In the middle of the "Gypsy Airs," he fiddled into his trademark number, "Love in Bloom," without missing a beat.

Agents Report Science Notes Go to Reds First

Chicago, Oct. 3 (AP)—A central intelligence agency officer said today that abstracts of papers by American scientists are sometimes published in the Soviet Union before they appear in United States scientific journals.

Dr. Herbert Scoville Jr., assistant director of the C. I. A., said the Russians' abstracting service, operated as "a state matter," prints sufficient scientific matter from all sources to compare in size with 35 volumes of the Encyclopedia Britannica each year.

Scoville said in an address prepared for the national electronics conference that Russian high school students receive more scientific training than do those in the United States.

Better Foundation

"Compared with American high school graduates, less than 10 per cent of whom have taken as much as a year in physics or chemistry, and even fewer any advanced mathematics," Scoville said, "The Soviet high school graduate has a much better science foundation."

In 1955, he said, 60 per cent of all Soviet college graduates had specialized in scientific-technical fields, as compared with about 25 per cent in the United States.

"In engineering alone," he said, "the Soviet Union graduated twice as many as the United States."

More Science Grads

He predicted that in 1960 the Soviet Union would graduate 135,000 science students, compared with 126,000 in America, and in the physical sciences and "if these trends continue," with 65,000.

"If these trends continue," Dr. Scoville said, "it is apparent that soon the Soviets will have a decided advantage in numbers of scientific-technical personnel."

He said that narrow specialization in Soviet technical education "tends to create a narrowness of outlook and may well

Hypnosis Advised In Rare Cases

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 3 (AP)—Hypnosis of the child dental patient was described today as advisable only in a very limited number of cases. Dr. Aaron A. Moss of Plainfield, N. J., said use of hypnosis should be viewed merely as an adjunct to already existing drugs and procedures and not as a substitute.

In a prepared report at the annual meeting of the American Dental Assn. Moss said hypnosis may be considered for the highly emotional or distrustful child whose "pain threshold" is lowered to a point where touch, pressure or even the sound of vibration is felt as pain by the youngster.

Moss, instructor of the American Society for Psychosomatic Dentistry, said some children require two or three sittings before sufficient depth of hypnosis is attained, while with some other children hypnosis cannot be attained at all.

reduce the Soviet scientist's chances of producing original scientific research."

In areas relating directly to the build-up of national power and military strength, Scoville said, the Soviets have made "remarkable progress and excel in some specialized areas."

He said they have achieved "significant advances" in nuclear research, and high competence in mathematics and aeronautics. He said "they are developing a strong competitive position in the design of modern long-range aeroplanes."

"Development of high speed digital computers in Russia is close to that in the United States," he added.

In the field of electronics, he said, the Russians have made vast strides.

"Perhaps in no other field of science and technology, with exception of the nuclear energy field and guided missiles, has the Soviet progress of the last 10 years been so intense and productive," Scoville said.

"Today the USSR is a major factor in electronics and a potent challenger for electronic leadership, of the USA."

Hearings Are Set In November on Rail Fare Hikes

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—The Public Service Commission will open hearings Nov. 2 on a New York Central railroad request for a $3,808,000 fare increase on three divisions.

The PSC said the company asked 20 per cent of the increase on the ground that replacement value should be used in computing rate of return on its property. The yardstick has been original cost.

The State Court of Appeals this year ruled the New York Telephone Co. had properly used the replacement formula in applying for a $68,850,000 rate boost that the PSC turned down. The telephone company has not renewed its request.

A post-decision bill specifying use of original cost in computing value of railroad and telephone company property died in a state Senate committee of the 1956 Legislature. Gov. Harriman said the Republican majorities in the Legislature had bowed to big business.

The PSC said the railroad was asking a six per cent return on property that originally cost 12 million but was now valued by the Central at 50 million.

The railroad has asked for increases averaging 30 per cent on the Hudson (New York City-Albany) and Harlem (New York-Chatham) divisions. The top increase would be 50 per cent.

Proposed boosts on the Putnam division, between New York City and Putnam county points, average 380 per cent and range to 500 per cent.

The PSC will also air a railroad proposal to abandon the Putnam division in lieu of raising fares.

Seven Jurors Ill

Philadelphia, Oct. 3 (AP)—Seven jurors in the murder trial of Frank J. Ellsworth were ill with respiratory ailments today. Judge Joseph Sloane said he would determine after medical examinations whether to delay testimony. The court adjourned yesterday afternoon after the illness became known. Ellsworth, of Tampa, Fla., and Omaha, Neb., is one of four men originally accused of the crime. The state maintains that Ellsworth and Raymond P. Wilson of Tulsa, Okla., were hired by Robert W. Thomas and Gus A. Demoss to rob Mrs. Rossman and killed her while taking some $200,000 from her. Wilson was convicted in May and sentenced to life imprisonment. Thomas, a former Dade county, Fla., deputy sheriff, and Demoss, a suspended Tulsa police radio dispatcher, are awaiting trial.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

People returning from Europe—and those coming to our shores for the first time—always crowd the port side of the ship to see the grand figure of "LIBERTY," enlightening the world. One gets a lump in his throat, and small tears easily flow. "LIBERTY," "LIBERTY"! There it stands now, and we hope, forever.

MR. HUTTON

Thanks to a Congressional resolution, made law by President Eisenhower's signature, the grand figure of "LIBERTY," enlightening the world, says good-bye to what has been called "Bedloe's Island." Isaac Bedloe, who once owned the island, was no doubt a good man, and true; but his name doesn't fit the "STATUE."

The "STATUE OF LIBERTY" was a gift from the people of France. It was shipped in sailing vessels, piece by piece, and erected on the small island. We are thankful that every piece arrived,—none missing. All this took many years.

A Senator from the smallest State in the Union—Rhode Island,—proposed to change the name from "Bedloe's Island" to "Liberty Island." We are thankful, too, for this. How easy to remember—and how inspiring—is the name, "Liberty Island!"

Among our 167 millions of people, there are many who have never seen the "STATUE" except in picture. No matter, they understand the meaning of the word, LIBERTY.

But, neighbor, is not this North American Continent an island in the world's great ocean? Is not all of it LIBERTY's island? It is, if every American continues to love LIBERTY.

Petition Is Filed Against O & W Reorganization

New York, Oct. 3 (P)—After patiently waiting for nearly 20 years, the government has decided that no one will be able to come up with a plan to reorganize the bankrupt New York, Ontario and Western Railway.

It filed a petition in Federal Court Tuesday to dismiss the railway's reorganization proceedings which began in 1937.

If Federal Judge Edward A. Congers grants the petition, the next step will be appointment of a receiver for the line which operates about 500 miles of tracks between Weehawken, N. J., and Oswego, N. Y., with branch lines to other points.

Court-appointed trustees have been running the road but none of the reorganization plans they submitted was acceptable to bondholder groups.

Heavy Losses Reported
The government petition said that since 1937 the road has lost from one to three million dollars each year.

Government claims against the railroad total more than six million dollars, representing unpaid income and carrier taxes, withholding taxes and employee's wages and other taxes. Large amounts of state and county taxes are also unpaid.

U. S. Attorney Paul W. Williams last March criticized the railroad for not putting tax money withheld from employees wages into a separate bank account and paying them when due. Employees entitled to income tax refunds have received them from the government, although the tax itself was never paid by the railroad.

No Plan Effectuated

"In the more than 19 years since the initial proceeding for the reorganization of the railway was commenced," the government petition said, "only four plans of reorganization have ever been submitted and no plan of reorganization has been effectuated, nor does it appear that a satisfactory plan of reorganization can or will be formulated and approved even now or in the foreseeable future."

The government said the tax bill was continuing to grow by $80,000 per month, and that deficits "together with other losses, have accumulated into many millions of dollars, despite numerous sales of much of the debtor's property."

Vivid Demonstration

Newport, Ky. (P)—John Bauer was showing passengers how another one of his passengers had been injured earlier in his elevator. Bauer stuck his foot between the doors. But the demonstration went further than he had intended. The doors closed on his foot and the elevator started upward. Before it could be stopped, Bauer's foot had been scraped against the wall of the elevator shaft—just like his passenger's had been.

Three Men Die As Big Plane Crashes, Burns

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 3 (AP)—A C124 Globemaster crashed and burned today at the Charleston Air Force Base. Three of the 10 men aboard were killed.

The others were sped to the U. S. Naval Hospital here with undetermined injuries. The Air Force Public Information office said the huge plane, coming from Bermuda, landed short on an instrument runway about 7:30 a. m. The plane apparently burst into flame after fog hung over the base at the time.

The Globemaster struck a short distance north of the base administrative building.

The Naval Hospital said three of the crew were dead on arrival there. The hospital said one of the injured was in good condition. There was no immediate report on the others.

Names of all of the men were withheld until next of kin were notified.

Denny Trial Scheduled Before Dargie Oct. 15

A jury trial in the case of Fred Denny, 44, of Esopus, on a charge of driving while intoxicated has been scheduled for 8 p. m. Monday, Oct. 15, in the Town of Esopus Auditorium, Port Ewen.

Mr. Denny, arrested Sept. 24 by Constable Floyd Barringer in the town of Esopus, has entered a plea of innocent to the charge. The case will be tried before Justice of the Peace Alvan S. Dargie of New Salem.

Attorney John Schick represents Mr. Denny. Attorney Bernard Feeney represents the office of the district attorney.

Campaign Doings

(By The Associated Press)

Democrat Adlai Stevenson carries his presidential campaign into Pennsylvania today, while President Eisenhower planned an only slightly political jaunt to New York for the opening game of the World Series.

The presidential flight from Washington today was billed as non-political, but the Eisenhower motorcade routes from the airport to Ebbsfeld and back were carefully outlined in advance.

With the Nov. 6 presidential election a little less than five weeks away, Stevenson kept his intensive campaign schedule, and added a nationwide television speech tonight.

Democrats bought 15 minutes on TV time (11 p. m. EDT) tonight for a Stevenson reply to Eisenhower's Ohio and Kentucky speeches Monday.

Yank Favorites

The Yankees who were 3 to 2 favorites to take the best-of-seven set and the 6-5 choice in the opener followed the lead of the batting cage to whale away at the inviting left field fence.

A special box had been set aside for the President's party. It was the first time a President had seen a Series game since 1936 when the late Franklin Roosevelt visited New York's Polo Grounds for a Yankee-Giant contest.

Perishes in Wreckage

Rockland, Mass., Oct. 3 (AP)—A naval reserve flyer perished in the burning wreckage of his downed jet plane last night after considerably waving away three would-be rescuers for fear an explosion would harm them. Scores of other persons stood by at a safer distance and saw the flames kill Lt. (jg) Donald R. Good, 27, of Natick, father of two children and a commercial pilot in civilian life.

Broadway Guard

made for safety in the general area.

Alderman Norton also called attention to a dangerous wall condition in the area and said something should be done about it. "When the wall goes down," he said, "Broadway is going with it."

The reassessment program came up for criticism by Aldermen Roth and Perry. The latter cited instances, which he still considered grossly unfair in his ward. In one, he said, a house was assessed more than a garage.

Alderman Roth read a long letter from Joseph and Helen McCaffrey, of his ward, in which they complained of an assessment boost in which no attention was paid to seepage of a stream inside of the house. It complained also of lack of co-operation in obtaining redress from either the appraising company or the assessor's office.

Fourth Ward Alderman Frank Zaksek asked for action toward installing a traffic light which had been requested for Hasbrouck and Delaware avenues and he proposed action toward repair of railroad crossings on Delaware avenue.

Zaksek felt that the intersection of Hasbrouck and Delaware avenues was as dangerous as the Broadway hill situation. Anyone killed there, he said, would be just as dead as anyone hit on the Broadway hill.

Alderman Ryan asked for consideration of his proposal to prepare Barmann park so that it could be used for skating in winter.

Alderman Perry noted that the city saved $15,000 through repair of Abel street by a private contractor, on the basis of first city estimates. He thanked City Engineer Arthur F. Hallinan for his cooperation.

Operation of Second Ward Alderman William F. Keyser, the aldermen, before adjourning, extended a vote of thanks, in observance of National Press Week, to the reporters covering the council session for The Freeman and the Kingston-Ulster Press.

150 Hear Panel

lican mayor of Kingston, speaking on behalf of the national administration, said that in 1952 the people indicated they were tired of the "fumbling" in Washington and selected President Eisenhower to straighten out the nation.

He pointed out that after his election Eisenhower had gone to Korea and it was not long after peace came. He spoke of the respect the people have for Eisenhower, his effective foreign policy and the respect in which he is held in foreign countries.

The government spending has been cut $10 billion dollars, he said, and the budget has been balanced.

Social security has been extended and "atoms for peace" initiated. The Republican party has accepted the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court in the racial discrimination controversy and he said the administration has been one for "all the People."

He also spoke of the record of Vice President Richard Nixon and referred to his understanding of the country's needs.

Hilda W. Smith of West Park who served in the Federal Emergency Relief Administration and the WPA during the Roosevelt administration spoke of the need for federal aid to local communities, aid to school and said government should be returned to the people. She also said a program should be developed to broaden public housing for low-income groups. Public health, farm assistance and other matters also came in for comment.

Mrs. Donald Allen, New Paltz, member of the State Republican committee, praised the Republican policy of permitting communities to become more independent and to "help themselves" rather than follow the Democratic policy of the immediate past where government was centered in Washington.

At the conclusion of the panel talks an opportunity was given to ask questions.

Gambler Shot Dead

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—A smalltime gambler who had a grisly gray and purple death's head mask with him was shot dead yesterday when he and a pal tried to pull an $8,000 payroll robbery. George Rosen, 39, and his accomplice trailed a payroll car headed for the Empire Switchboard Co. in Brooklyn. When the car halted, the two men leaped from their own auto with guns drawn. The accomplice had slipped on a rubber false face with a dapper mustache. But Rosen forgot his death's head mask in the rush and left it in the car.

Conviction Reversed

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals has reversed the 1954 conviction for tax evasion of Raymond O'Connor, 59, of Niagara Falls. The Court of Appeals said the trial judge had given a "grossly inadequate" charge to the jury that convicted the certified public accountant. A decision yesterday also said the government had not properly presented its case when it held O'Connor owed $99,383 in taxes for 1946-49. Federal Judge John Knight sentenced O'Connor to five years in jail and fined him $20,000.

Fire Destroys Building

Salamanca, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Fire destroyed the main building of the Fitzpatrick & Weller Inc. shoe-last plant today. Company officials estimated the loss at $50,000. Firemen said the blaze started in a storage section of the frame building, which houses the mill, boiler room and power plant. Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—Stocks were higher in early trading today, carrying yesterday's strong advance into a second day.

Gains of $1 to $3 a share were numerous, and a few specialties fared even better. Steels, aluminum, rubbers and papers were in demand.

Lukens Steel jumped $5 a share on news of a stock split and higher dividend. Other gainers included International Paper, up $3.50 to $114.75, Alcoa $2.87 to $107.75, Gulf Oil $2.37 to $115.87, Texas Co. $1.50 to $58. Goodrich $1.62 to $71.50 and U. S. Steel $1.12 to $67.25.

Trading was at a fairly heavy pace. Yesterday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks leaped by $2.50 to $174.70 after a long string of declines. This rise tacked an estimated three billion dollars on the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Norton Upholds Sixth

Sixth Ward Alderman George P. Norton, after the letter was read, said:

"Mr. McMurray, I believe lives in New York city. What does that man know about how these people (sixth ward) live?"

In some of the homes there, the alderman said, "He could sit down and eat off the floor. How can he tell us we can't build, and let that land go to rot?"

Seitz Makes Check

The voice of Deputy City Clerk Walter S. Foster, hampered by a cold, was a bare tone above a whisper during the session, and Alfred J. P. Seitz, who has appeared at several meetings in behalf of downtown interests, was forced to come forward from the audience to catch what he could of the letter. He was one of about a dozen persons attending last night's session.

The committee which met with the education board's building committee Sept. 22, noted that its report was in no sense a recommendation, and was presenting only facts as they happened.

Alderman Richard V. Roth, chairman, James K. Ryan, and George F. McArdle, are on the committee, and the report noted that Edwin Radel, substituted for Ryan, who was unable to attend. Besides members of the education board, Mayor Stang, Corporation Counsel James J. Abernethy, Andrew J. Murphy, 3rd, of the recreation department, and Augustus Schrowang, the board's architect, and Augustus Brinnier, civil engineer, attended.

A prime thought of "your committee," the report said "was the unrestricted use of Dietz Memorial Stadium to the City of Kingston."

Control of Stadium

The education board felt, it said, that it would like to take title to the stadium and have complete control. Discussion on this led to an oral agreement to "lease back the grounds" to the Piecemeal . . .

Since the council resolution spoke only of a housing project, I can only assume that such further action is not presently contemplated by the City of Kingston." If such be the fact, then I must regretfully advise you that the sixth ward area does not have my approval as a prospective site for a public housing project.

For Any Suitable Site

"However, I wish to reiterate what I or my representatives have repeatedly stated to the officials of the City of Kingston and the Kingston Housing Authority. This rejection of the sixth ward site does not mean that I would approve only the Kingston Park site, it merely means that I will approve any site, which would be suitable for the location of a project, and, in its present condition, I do not believe the sixth ward to be such a site."

The letter was addressed to George E. Yerry Jr., chairman of the Kingston Housing Authority, and was forwarded to the council by him.

McMurray concluded to the effect that if the authority and the city desire consideration of an alternate site, he would operate. His office, he said, "is always ready to aid the City of Kingston in attempting

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Foundation Play Is 'Hilarious'

Woodstock, Oct. 3—The Woodstock Foundation's production "Woodstock Confidential" presented last Friday and Saturday nights at the Playhouse, proved one definite point. The famed art colony is quite capable of sitting back and taking a long, healthy guffaw at itself. The assorted eccentricities contained therein added up to a hilarious farce, highlighted with many and varied brilliant talents.

First kudos undoubtedly go to the four principal leads who carried off story and were the unwitting butts of the artist jokers they encountered in their search for the "real Woodstock." Ed Gracious was the eager Harry out on a vacation spree from the shipping department of the paint factory and Bill West was his more reluctant pal drawn into the fracas. Rena Altomir was the giddy Marilyn and Kiki Godwin her equally starchy-eyed co-worker. All four were perfect foils for each other and tossed the ball of the action back and forth with professional glee, and the laughs were many.

The climax of the evening was the gay party at the artist's studio with many talented guests. Jane Wilson was a vision of loveliness in a silver grey ball gown singing magnificently the "Vienna Waltz" and a duet "Make Believe" with Abram Molyneux. Phillip Lanza, recently from the Persian Room of the Plaza, in New York, brilliant exponent of the flamenco dance brought a storm of applause from the audience. Called "The hope of the Spanish dance," Mr. Lanza has appeared with Jose Greco and Pilar Lopez.

In effective and sinister garb amidst flashing lights, the Manorska Dancers presented a vivid version of Danse Macabre.

Also lending color to the Zebra Gallery exhibition was the lovely ballet solo by Oudette Boucard, as the shimmering green and pink Degas dancing girl. Other pictures who came to life were Tatiana Hunold, Lynn Wright, Carol Viglielmo, Norma Champanier, Louise Brokenshaw and Gladys Plate. Participating in the crowd scenes and especially funny in the Zebra Gallery were: Pomeroy Lee, Jerry Dodd, Bill Pierpoint Jr., Barbara Williams, Kirk Stiles, Frank and John Minervini.

The production was under the able direction of Elaine Funk, and a masterly job was done by Gluck Sander as production manager. Stage manager Albert Hoffman and Jules Viglielmo and Vincent Carey in charge of lights were all responsible for the excellent pace and timing show. The costuming of the play was superbly done by Marilyn Goddard. Plywood for the stage floor was donated by the Miron Building Supply Co. Giving solid support throughout the evening in the orchestra pit were Clem Nessel, piano, Bud Deyo, trumpet, Chubby Mason, sax, and Max Abrams, drums. Behind the scenes Peter Soriano and Benny Dwer were the efficient prompters.

Historical Group Is Told of Church

Woodstock, Oct. 3—The Rev. Harvey I. Todd presented a historical sketch of the Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church at the third regular meeting of the Historical Society of Woodstock, last Tuesday evening at the church basement. Mr. Todd read the paper entitled "History of the Dutch Reformed Church in Woodstock" which the Society hopes to incorporate in one of their forthcoming publications.

According to Mr. Todd, the Dutch Reformed Church had its official beginning on January 3, 1805, when on that date the committee appointed by the Classis of Ulster composed of the Rev. Stephen Goetchiuss of the Marletown (Stone Ridge) and Shokan Reformed Churches and the Rev. Ralph Westervelt of the Rochester (Accord) and Wawarsing (Napanoch) Reformed churches organized a group of laymen and laywomen into a Church and ordained a Consistory to preside over and govern the new church.

"This, however," Mr. Todd reported, "did not mark the beginning of religious life in the community. The records of the older Church at Katsbaan show that nearly every year beginning in 1778 down to 1790 there were children of Woodstock residents baptized by the Dominies of that Church. Then very abruptly these spiritual services by the Katsbaan pastors ended in 1783 and from then on to the year 1805 Dominie Doll of the Old First Dutch Church of Kingston rendered spiritual services of this sort for the people of Woodstock as the records of that church show."

One of the first concerns of the new Church was to secure a new dominie of its own. It chose the Rev. Peter Overbaugh, who began his labors in the year 1806 and ended them in 1817. Then the church was without a pastor of its own until the year 1826.

After 1826, the church was continuously served by its own ministers except for brief periods down to the present time. There have been 22 ministers over the church, and the remarkable thing is that the longest pastorate lasted only 11 years, while in surrounding Reformed Churches there were pastorates lasting 20, 40 and even 60 years.

Mr. Todd notes that among the earlier dominies the Rev. William Boyse, 1826-37, stands out prominently. Under his able and energetic leadership the church became firmly established in the community. Because he labored so well the congregation outgrew its original place of worship standing on what is now known as the Green. This structure according to information from the Van Etten family was built by Jacobus Van Etten at some time within the period bounded by the years 1799 and 1805. His son John Van Etten built the present structure in the year 1844. Mr. Todd related the account of the strange lack of any details concerning the building of the church in the church records.

There is however, one definite link between the first church building and its furnishings and the present structure. This is a pulpit Bible which was in use in the first church building, on the fly-leaf of which is the following: "This Bible is the property of the Reformed Dutch Church at Woodstock in the County of Ulster."

"The present edifice," Mr. Todd says, "which I have come to call the 'most-painted church in the world,' is a glorious monument to the taste and skill of those designed and built it, who ever they may have been."

It is said that Levi Elting of Shady put the bell and weather-vane on the top of the steeple when it was built in 1844.

Also included in the paper are descriptions of the various sites where the parsonages have stood over the years and also the sheds used by the congregation who came in horse-drawn vehicles.

For one hundred years, Mr. Todd said, the congregation changed very little either in size or character. But about the beginning of the present century a new type of person came into the community which changed the whole spiritual and mental atmosphere tremendously. "Those sturdy Woodstock farmers did exceedingly well for over a hundred years. Those who follow after have no mean pattern set before them by these," Mr. Todd concluded.

Mandel Exhibition Is Well Received

Woodstock, Oct. 3—Another Fulbright fellow is having a first-class exhibition of his own this week," according to Emily Genauer, art critic of the New York Herald Tribune, writing in the art section, Sunday, Sept. 30, "He's Howard Mandel, at the Roko Gallery, who spent considerable time in Italy. You can see it in his subjects, in the way architecture as theme figures importantly in his compositions, in the architectural way his prismatic color areas are put together, in his fresco-like textures, and even in an affinity his expressionless but still oddly poignant and completely human figures have with those one sees in ancient Etruscan paintings. Mandel's color is clearer and stronger than it used to be; his surface is richer."

A reproduction of one of Howard Mandel's paintings "Idols of the Market Place," accompanies the review. Mandel, who lives in Bearsville, spent over a year painting in Europe on a Fulbright Award.

Church Notes

Woodstock, Oct. 3—God's healing and redemptive power will be emphasized in services, Sunday, Oct. 7, at the Woodstock Christian Science Church. The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will include the following passage from "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (472:24-30): "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good and He makes all that is made. Therefore the only reality of sin, sickness, or death is the awful fact that unrealities seem real to human, erring belief, until God strips off their disguise. They are not true, because they are not of God."

The "Golden Text" is from Psalms (67:1, 2): "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations."

The Mature Parent

Youngsters See Through You If You're Unsure of Yourself

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

The school she taught in was located in one of a big city's slum neighborhoods. Fifty years ago, its streets teemed with an immigrant population whose customs and speech were foreign to her.

But its children were eager to learn English; and in teaching it to them she became their friend—the person a tearful Gina or Morrie could always count on to explain the way of American landlords with a notice of dis-possession, what time Papa could visit Mama at the hospital, why you mustn't throw garbage in the street.

Her third grade numbered 72 children. One day she found it necessary to leave them. Instead of requesting substitute supervision, she just rose from behind her desk and said, "Children, I must leave you alone for 15 minutes. I am not going to ask for another teacher to come and make you behave. Sooner or later we all have to learn to make ourselves behave. So you might as well begin right now to find out you can do it."

Upon her return, the little girl who served the class as monitor eagerly raised her hand. "Everybody was good," she said proudly. "We all made ourselves behave."

She once recounted this experience to a young teacher who was finding class discipline difficult. Impressed, the younger woman memorized the words that had won it for the older one. At the first opportunity, she repeated them to her own class of well-fed well-dressed, suburbanite youngsters—and left them with the challenge to make themselves behave.

They nearly made a riot instead.

When this failure was reported to the older teacher, she did not speak at once. Then she said gently, "I think this young woman does not really believe that we all have to learn to make ourselves behave."

Why? Because, she added, "when we know a thing to be true, children feel our certainty. They trust and obey it. But when we just act on thoughts put into our head by somebody else, they feel that we are children, too. My boys and girls were willing to discipline themselves because they could feel my conviction that self-discipline cannot be avoided. This young woman's students felt no such certainty in her."

The reason we cannot make the child guidance people's thoughts work for us is that they represent the effort of other people. (All rights reserved, NEA Service, Inc.).

Payette, Idaho (P) — Mrs. George Whorton of Payette found what she thought was a kitten in her downstairs bedroom. She called for her husband. The animal intruder turned out to be a badger. Whorton spent a half hour chasing it with a broom, finally sent it scampering up the alley. The Whortons still don't know how it got into the house.

Sheep Hideout

Kiowa, Colo. (AP)—These big-horn sheep aren't so dumb. Rancher Sam Kimsey said a ram and two ewes showed up on his place on Kiowa Creek in rolling, timbered country not usually inhabited by mountain sheep. If they stay put, they'll be safe during the fall hunting season. Kimsey's ranch is an area closed to bighorn shooting.

He is a son of former Surrogate Judge and Mrs. Harry H. Flemming of this city.

Theme of the four-day convention is "Rehabilitation—Gateway to Freedom," emphasizing total rehabilitation leading toward independence for the crippled.

Theodore H. Wegener, Boise, Idaho, president of the organization, will preside at all sessions during which prominent Americans will discuss physical, occupation and speech therapy, also special education.

Four specialists will talk on "A Decade of Progress in Cerebral Palsy."

Prominent medical authorities and educators are also on the speakers' program.

More than 1,500 rehabilitation workers, volunteers, parents and friends of the crippled will be present from all sectors of the nation.

African recently to write the newspaper in search of American pen pals. As a lure Rasulu offered the above items as well as leopard skin wallets, carved knives and bows and arrows. Bartering with him may be a little difficult. He says his hobbies include table tennis and "collecting of movie stars."

Family Trouble Blamed for Six Children Dying

Clinton, N. C., Oct. 3 (AP)—Domestic difficulties were blamed by officers for a tenant farmer going berserk yesterday and killing his six children and himself.

Rufus A. King, 35, had a temper and had several fuses with his wife that the neighbors knew about, but he was a sober churchgoer without a police record.

Yesterday morning, apparently while two of his children were waiting for a school bus in the front yard of their five-room house, his mind snapped. Within a matter of minutes he had shot each through the head with a .22 rifle and then beat the heads of each horribly with an ax and the rifle.

Three hours later King's body was found in a cornfield about a quarter mile from the house. He had shot himself between the eyes with a .410 shotgun.

Coroner Coleman Carter said "it's a clear case of six murders and a suicide."

Mrs. King, 27, was at a brother's house at the time of the massacre. She is under sedatives, suffering from shock plus a beating administered by her husband.

A mass funeral is scheduled for tomorrow with interment in the King family cemetery at Clinton.

May Never Know

Carter said an exact reconstruction of what took place during the family's last fatal hours may never be known.

Mrs. King had sworn a warrant charging King with wife beating.

Two deputies who arrived at the King house around 8 a. m.

to serve the warrant discovered the bodies of the children. Bloodhounds found King's body in the cornfield.

The children were Alice 10, Joseph 9, Melvin 7, Ruth 5, Jerry 4, and Susan 2.

event of attack or natural disaster.

According to Mr. Hand, the dairy has volunteered its services at the request of the Civil Defense organization.

The Civil Defense program calls for the Woodstock Dairy to be on a 24-hour alert in the event of any emergency which might damage or pollute the water supply of a neighboring community. On request from Civil Defense officials the dairy could begin immediately to package water in specially printed half gallon and quart containers. These containers could then be rushed to the stricken community.

The plan is the outgrowth of a successful effort last fall to relieve the suffering in flood-ravaged Stroudsburg, Pa. At that time, when the town's water supply became contaminated, a nearby dairy packaged water in special containers. The packaged water was trucked to Stroudsburg where it was the only water available for several days.

AMERICAN MENUCranberry-Nut Bread Gives Climax to Plan Sessions

ROSY RED cranberries are traditional, so Mrs. Frank Costello includes them in her Massachusetts party menus.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
Let's all register and vote this year!

Historically, Plymouth county in Massachusetts, known as the site of the first Pilgrim settlement, also boasts of being the largest cranberry-producing area in the U. S. With such heritage, cranberry growers' wives have been busier than ever this election year.

Early this fall, a group began meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Costello, in South Carver, to work on plans. Under the direction of Mrs. Walter Lyle, of neighboring Wareham, towns were organized by streets to provide special transportation and baby-sitting services.

When the business of the meeting is over, Mrs. Costello brings out her famous cranberry-nut bread and a large pot of coffee.

Cranberry-Nut Bread

(Makes 1 large loaf)

Three cups sifted all-purpose flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ cup sugar, ½ cup chopped walnuts, ½ cup candied orange peel, finely chopped; 2 eggs, beaten; 1 cup milk, 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, 1 cup fresh cranberries, coarsely chopped.

Sift together dry ingredients. Stir in nuts and peel. Combine beaten eggs, milk and melted butter or margarine. Stir all at once into flour mixture. Mix in cranberries. Turn into a greased loaf pan (8x5x3 inches) and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 hour, or until done. Cool on rack. When loaf is cooled, wrap in foil or waxed paper. Let stand for several hours for better slicing.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Tomato and grapefruit juice, scalloped ham, potatoes and onions, buttered beans, cranberry-nut bread, butter margarine, butter-scotch pudding, coffee, tea, milk.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Low Finesse Unblocks Suit

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service
When today's hand was played in a recent English match, South had to exercise great caution to make his game contract in no-trump.

West opened the six of spades, and East was allowed to hold the first trick with the king. East returned the four of spades, and South hopped right up with the ace.

South now led the jack of diamonds and let it ride for a finesse!

When this finesse held, South was home. He led the ten of diamonds and allowed this to ride also when West played low. Dummy could then win the rest of the diamonds, and South was sure of six diamond tricks. This was one trick more than he actually needed.

When South let the jack of diamonds ride, he didn't know that the finesse would succeed. If he lost the trick, he would be able to win the next diamond in his hand with the ten, after which dummy could take the rest of the diamonds. Five diamond tricks would be enough for the contract.

South wasn't worried about the spades, even if he lost the first diamond trick. If East could lead another spade, the suit would break evenly and South would lose only three spade tricks in addition to the queen of diamonds.

The important point was that South could not afford to lead a diamond to dummy's ace in order to begin that suit. South could then return to his hand with a club and lead the jack of diamonds, but West would cover with the queen in order to force out dummy's king. The diamonds would then block, and South would win only four diamond tricks. This would net only eight tricks.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Here is an exciting story from the days of steamboats and horses, taken from the Kingston Freeman and Journal of Tuesday, September 15th, 1908. "As a horse was being led from the Central Hudson Steamboat Co's dock, in the rear of Ferry street, aboard the steamer Jacob H. Tremper, it became scared and backed off the gang plank. There was space of but a few feet of water between the boat and the dock and the frightened animal at once swam under the hull of the freighter and rested itself by placing its head between the paddles of the wheel. While arrangements were being made for a rescue it suddenly started for the bow of the boat."

Perhaps some folks remember when Edward Osterhoudt, then quickly removed his shoes, and jumped into the water and swam after the horse. He was one of the deck hands on the Tremper. At the bow there was not space enough for either to pass and horse and man disappeared beneath the water. When they again came to the surface on the other side of the bow, Osterhoudt had a firm hold on the horse's bridle. A rope was thrown to him and he fastened it about the animal. Acting under instructions from the bridge, Osterhoudt guided the excited horse around to the other side of the Tremper and waited for a boat to be lowered. Time passed. No boat appeared. The horse was rapidly losing strength. Convinced that it could hold out but a few minutes longer, Osterhoudt headed it toward the opposite shore and released his hold on the rope.

The story continued: "For a time the horse kept directly toward the shore, but as it neared the center of the creek it suddenly turned and made for the mouth of the stream. Osterhoudt again started after the horse, and with the aid of a man in a row boat, once more turned its head toward the shore. Several times the tired animal sank from sight, but each time it raised its head and struggled on. Osterhoudt vainly tried to turn it into the ferry slip at Sleightsburgh, but several hundred feet further on he succeeded and it reached the shore exhausted.

Just as the ferry slip was passed the boat from the Tremper was lowered and manned by four men, plowed through the water for the other side of the creek, and the horse was on its way back aboard the famous Skilliput before the boat was two thirds of the way across."

The nameless horse was owned by Wade Ackerman of Kingston, and was being shipped to the Hudson Fair, where it was to take part in the races that week. After its wet blanket had been removed and it was given a hot toddy, it appeared as well as ever, but for several abrasions on its legs. Those who had witnessed this incident, some several hundred, cheered loudly when the animal and Osterhoudt who had guided it to safety reached the Port Ewen shore, safe but exhausted.

One item from the social column of Port Ewen reads: "Mrs. Martin Schleede of Riverside avenue and her sister-in-law, Miss Louis Schleede, of Riverside drive took an excursion to Lake Mohonk this morning with a large party of their Kingston relatives and friends in two large excursion wagons from Parish's livery, of Kingston."

So They Say

Saint Ignatius, Bishop of Antioch and one of the early Christian martyrs, is said by some to have been the infant whom Christ took up in his arms, as related in the ninth chapter of Mark in the Bible.

Reports on Rail Station

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—A consulting engineer says a 17-million-dollar development plan for the New Haven Railroad Station in New Rochelle, N. Y., would probably take four or five years to complete. Samuel S. Greenhut testified yesterday at a Public Service Commission hearing into the railroad's application to relocate its passenger and freight station areas in New Rochelle. Under a proposed 17-million-dollar plan, the New Rochelle Development Corp. would buy the present station from the railroad for one million dollars, build a new passenger terminal and lease it back to the New Haven for 299 years. The development would include a suburban shopping center and a five-floor parking facility for 5,000 cars.

Loses Race, Wife

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 3 (AP)—D. L. Cullum, a loser in the race for state auditor in the July 31 Democratic primary, lost his wife because he failed to tell her he was a candidate. Mrs. Gladys Cullum was granted a divorce yesterday after charging that Cullum's failure to tell her about his candidacy constituted "cruel and inhuman treatment." They were married in 1955. She said she was "embarrassed and humiliated" when newsmen inquired about her husband's candidacy and she knew nothing about it.

Shakedown Charged

Mineola, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Nassau County Dist. Atty. Frank A. Gulotta says county and town plumbing inspectors have been shaking down contractors for "gratuities" of from $2 to $100. He said yesterday the money was paid by cesspool and plumbing contractors for prompt inspections rather than for certification of defective workmanship or materials. Involved in the shakedowns, he said, were county health department inspectors and town of Hempstead plumbing inspectors. He said several have resigned and others have been fired.

It has been estimated the average physician works 60 hours per week.

"It is the highest privilege of every citizen..."

If someone tried to take your vote away, you would probably fight. Yet you can lose the privilege of voting by forgetting to register in time.

So many elections have been won and lost by a tiny handful of votes in each voting area that your personal vote this year could actually decide who is elected.

As President Eisenhower pointed out recently:

"It is not only the highest privilege but the duty of every citizen to vote. Let us remember we cannot vote if we do not register."

"Lincoln defined this government in three ways: 'of, by, and for the people,' implying that if people did not exercise their right to govern, their government would perish from the earth."

"I have unlimited faith in America as long as America will express itself. The only thing I should like to see is every American vote!"

KEEPING HIM COMPANY

"The sister of my boy friend has a baby. On several occasions my boy friend has volunteered to stay with the baby while they go out. He is going to baby-sit for them next Saturday when they have an important dance to go to, and his sister has asked me to come over and keep him company. Mother thinks it would be improper for me to go and spend the evening in their house with him alone while they are out. Will you please tell me what you think?"

I agree with your mother—the baby would not be much of a chaperon.

Who Furnishes Silver

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married soon. Who is expected to furnish the silver—bride or groom? I would appreciate hearing from you.

Answer: Whichever can; there is no rule. Usually it is given by friends and relatives of both. Linnen is supposed to be given by the bride's family, but this, too, has become a matter of who can.

Is Stepmother's Name Included?

Dear Mrs. Post: My mother died several years ago and my father has recently remarried. I am going to be married this winter and would like to know how my invitations should be worded. Should my stepmother's name be included on the invitations or should they be sent in my father's name alone?

Answer: Your stepmother's name must be included, but the wording "his daughter" instead of "their daughter" explains that she is not your mother.

Censors' Decision

Memphis, Tenn. (AP)—"The Bad Seed," a movie about a monstrous 9-year-old girl who commits several particularly unsavory murders, was passed for showing by the three-woman Memphis Board of Censors—but not without a deletion. The board held the picture—despite its shocking theme—could be shown on an "adults only" basis. But one word, spoken by actress Eileen Heckart, had to go. The word: "Privy."

plants until June 10? Well, some people over his way put out their tomato plants three times—and each time they were killed by frost. About that time they decided they'd better do what Mr. Shultis advised and wait until June 10.

The Shultis forecast of last spring foresaw a cold, wet and disagreeable spring with frost in May, precipitation of rain and snow above normal for April and May with the driest weather and highest temperature in August and September. There would also be freak thunderstorms with little rain at times.

With one exception, this was the record from April 1 to September 30, 1956, Mr. Shultis points out.

Off On September

The one exception which the prophet is willing to concede was his forecast for September. This month, he admits, "was not as warm as predicted."

There is one other prediction in which Mr. Shultis takes pardonable pride. About August 15 he received a telephone call from Miss Marion Clarke of Kingston, chairman of a committee on arrangements for a party and fashion show in the garden of Dr. Moseley's home.

Miss Clarke was advised to go ahead with plans for an outdoor party, that it would be a "clear cool day."

"Which, if you remember," Mr. Shultis points out, "was a beautiful day."

Upstate Man Killed

Skaneateles, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Earl J. Wells, 59, of Port Byron was injured fatally last night when his automobile and another collided six miles south of here.

United Nations, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov, arriving today for the UN Security Council debate on the Suez Canal, declared he is "deeply convinced we shall be able to find a reasonable solution to the problems troubling us."

Stresses Fairness

The Soviet Foreign minister said this could be achieved "through negotiations on a basis of equality and fairness, and by means of a correct combination of the interests of Egypt as a sovereign state, and the interests of all other states using the canal."

Shepilov and six other foreign ministers, including Egypt's Mahmoud Fawzi, will take part in the council debate opening Friday. Egypt is not a member of the 11-nation council but was invited to participate as an interested party.

Shepilov, in an airport statement, asserted that attempts were still being made to settle the Suez problem "from positions of strength."

Says Understanding Lacking

"These attempts are caused by lack of understanding of the spirit of our times and of the renovation of the forms of social life that is in progress throughout the vast expanse of the East," he continued.

"It is ignorance of these processes that lies at the back of all hot-headed and impractical projects to resolve the Suez problem through compulsion. But we hope that the advocates of these measures are becoming even fewer in numbers."

Holding Private Huddles

Private huddles were being held at the UN in advance of the Friday debate. Selwyn Lloyd of Britain and Koca Popovic of Yugoslavia were already on hand. Paul-Henri Spaak of Belgium, Christian Pineau of France and Fawzi were expected during the day and Secretary of State Dulles by Friday or perhaps sooner.

Britain and France were preparing a resolution for the council calling for international control of the 103-mile waterway nationalized by Egypt July 26. They counted on U. S. support.

Have Compromise Aim

Yugoslavia and other nations were reported working for a compromise. The Soviet Union has backed Egypt in the canal dispute.

Lloyd and Pineau were to meet tonight at dinner with Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U. S. representative on the council. The British-French resolution was expected to be the top item in their talks.

A British spokesman said the resolution was on paper but that revisions still were being discussed. He did not say when it would be introduced.

Helpful—How did you like that blind date I dug up for you? Ingrate—Did you have to go all the way to Egypt to dig her up?

St. Augustine, Florida, is the oldest city in the United States proper founded and continuously occupied by Europeans. Juan Ponce de Leon is believed to have first seen Florida and gone ashore in the vicinity of St. Augustine in 1513. On August 28, 1565, Pedro Menendez de Aviles entered the harbor, named the place San Augustin and left part of his force there while he marched overland to exterminate a colony of French Huguenots who had settled near by in 1564. In September, 1565, Menendez returned to San Augustin and established a permanent town. Three years later Sir Francis Drake sacked and burned the settlement, but the site is believed to have been occupied continuously by Europeans ever since.

A lady complained to a friend visiting her that her next door neighbor was a poor house-keeper, her children were dirty, her house was filthy, and one was almost disgraced by living near her.

Lady—Just look at those clothes she has hung out on the line. See the black streaks up and down those sheets and pillow-cases.

The friend stepped to the window, raised it, and looked out. Visitor—It appears, my dear, that the clothes are perfectly clean; the streaks you see are on your own window.

Junior—What do they mean by "the city's pulse?"

Dad—Oh, I suppose it has something to do with the police-men's beats.

Advances Made In Engineering On Continental

Detroit, Oct. 3 (AP)—Numerous engineering refinements, with added power and acceleration resulting from higher compression ratio, and a new carburetor will mark the 1957 line of Continental cars.

Disclosing details of the line for the 1957 model year, Ben. D. Mills, general manager of the Lincoln division, which produces the Continental, said the basic and identifying characteristics of the $10,000 prestige car are not being changed.

The V-8 overhead valve engine has a 10 to 1 compression ratio. Its specific horsepower was not disclosed. The car will be on a 126-inch wheelbase. It has an over-all height of 56 inches.

Additions to the car include a new limited-slip differential, automatic headlamp dimmer and self-regulating electric clock. The limited-slip differential checks wheel spinning and sudden shock loads over uneven roads and under adverse driving conditions when one wheel leaves the surface of the road or has poor traction on a slippery spot.

A 40-ampere generator also is new. It is designed to assure adequate amperage for the many electrical circuits in the car. The 15-inch diameter wheels are retained.

Why Save My Best Pitcher?

Yankees Are Slim 6-5 Favorites in Opener

Stengel Sticks With Whitey Ford

By JOE REICHLER

Brooklyn, Oct. 3 (AP)—Either out of force of habit or because of their past winning ways in this sort of competition, New York has ruled a solid 8 to 5 favorite to defeat Brooklyn in the 1956 World Series but was only a 6 to 5 choice to win today as the Yankees' Whitey Ford and the Dodgers' Sal Maglie squared off in the opener at Ebbets Field.

A crowd of about 34,000 jammed the ancient Flatbush ball park with Dwight D. Eisenhower, the first President to attend a World Series game in 20 years, scheduled to throw out the first ball.

Cool, clear weather was forecast, with predicted early morning showers supposed to end before the scheduled starting time of 1 p. m. (EDT). Those fans not fortunate enough to be able to obtain tickets, had a choice of watching it on television (NBC) or listening to it on network radio (Mutual).

The pitting of Maglie against Ford marks a strange contrast and not only because 39-year-old Sal is right-handed and 28-year-old Ford throws from the left side. Maglie, the oldest pitcher ever to open a World Series, has never won a post-season game although he has started two. Ford has won three, two over the Dodgers, but in his only Series start at Ebbets Field, he lasted only one inning.

Maglie, the elder, was working with only three days rest. Ford, the junior, had pitched since he failed in his bid for victory No. 20 last Wednesday. Yankee Manager Casey Stengel's explanation for nominating Ford over his three starting right-handers in a park considered a southpaw's graveyard, was simple:

"Ford is my best pitcher," he said, "and I can't afford to hold him out until the third game." Dodger manager Walter Alston's only concern has been whether Maglie's ancient arm could stand the strain of working with so short a rest. Maglie dispelled his manager's doubts yesterday when he assured him:

"The arm is all right. I'll be ready to go tomorrow."

A Hitters Series

With due respect to the proved ability of Maglie and Ford, this does not figure to be a pitching Series. In fact, it looks very much like the hitters, led by the Yankees' Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra and Hank Bauer and the Dodgers' Duke Snider, Jackie Robinson and Carl Furillo, will take charge.

The world championship may very well go to the team which receives the stoutest relief pitching. That's one department where the Dodgers hold the edge over the Yankees. The American League champs, who whipped the Dodgers five straight times in World Series competition until they were beaten last year, don't have anyone to match bullpen aces Clem Labine and Don Bessent.

The way this observer sees it, the Series figures to go the limit of seven games, just as it did last year, with the Dodgers again winning it. The Yankees have more power and just as good defense but the fact is they didn't win any of the three games at Ebbets Field last year. This year, they may play four in Brooklyn's handbox.

History With Yanks

There is strong reason for sticking with the Yankees. In the last 35 years, starting with 1921, they have won 22 pennants and their World Series record consists of 16 Series victories and only five defeats. On the other hand, the Dodgers lost seven consecutive fall classics until they upset the Yankees last October.

Both teams were at full strength but three of the Yankees and one Dodger were not at their physical peak. Mickey Mantle, who missed most of the '55 Series, is still bothered a bit by a groin injury sustained Sept. 22; second baseman Billy Martin has an aching back and 40-year-old Enos Slaughter, who will patrol left field, has a bad toe. The diagnosis of Roy Campanella's perennially aching right thumb is: "Not in good shape but it has been worse."

The lineups that won the pennants will remain intact for the Series, at least the first game. Alston, who at first had intended to bench the southpaw hitting Sandy Amoros against left-handed pitching, switch Junior Gilliam to left and play rookie Charlie Neal at second base, changed his mind yesterday.

PLANNING A YANKEE SHAVE—Roy Campanella, left, Brooklyn Dodgers catcher, shows Sal (The Barber) Maglie where he'll take Maglie's pitches in World Series opener, against New York Yankees at Ebbets Field. Maglie, who has a 13-5 record, will be facing Whitey Ford, whose season mark is 19-6. (AP Wirephoto)

When it finally came to pass and the St. Louis Cardinals had laid a lily in the fumbling hands of the Milwaukee Braves, you wouldn't believe it. You wouldn't believe there were so many Brooklyn Dodger fans around town.

Isn't it always that way? Manic Colao, the tontorial expert-bowler, expressed the indignity of true Yankee fans.

"Three days before they clinched the pennant you couldn't find a Dodger fan with radar," bellowed the belligerent barber. "All of a sudden they come crawling out of the air raid shelters, tap rooms and the garrets. Where were they when the Bums were one down on the loss side?"

Where were they? Waiting for the Braves to fold, of course.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

The World Series schedule would seem to favor Brooklyn with four games in the Gowanus handbox, if the series goes the limit. But in 16 games played between the clubs in World Series between 1947 through 1955, they split right down the middle—8 and 8. . . . Mrs. Dorothy Flemings, formerly of Kingston but now of West Palm Beach, Fla., has signed as bowling instructor at Miami's fabulous Bowlerama. Mrs. Flemings recently completed two terms as president of the West Palm Beach Woman's Bowling Association. Her husband, George (Curly) Flemings won the all-events division of the 1955-56 West Palm Beach city association tournament.

Of Men and Mice:

Identification Officer Earl Conro of the Ulster county sheriff's office returned from a week of hunting in Canada with a "mess" of fish—trout, pickerel, etc., and about 45 partridges. He also got some excellent motion pictures of the trip, including the inspiring sight of a 300-pound black bear munching on blueberries. Conro's hunting camp was located about 110 miles north of Ottawa and his companion was a Canadian hunter, a friend of many years standing. It was Conro's 39th hunting and fishing expedition into Canada where he has spent most of the vacations of his lifetime.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Ralston Jr. of Mount Marion won the annual Open class boat race at Newburgh on Sunday. A third member of the crew in the three-race series sponsored by the Newburgh Yacht Club was John Ponsen of Red Oak Mills. The Ralston boat, named "Bolero," is a 20-foot sail boat of the WD 21 class flying the Chelsea Yacht Club pennant. Mrs. Ralston is the former Patty Palen of Port Ewen.

Farrell Seeks Cleveland Post

Cleveland, Oct. 2 (AP)—Kerby Farrell, a 43-year-old Tennessee who managed Indianapolis to a four-game sweep of the Little World Series, will talk with Hank Greenberg about the manager's job on the Cleveland Indians in New York this week.

Farrell said he wasn't going to attend the World Series until this thing came along. Then I decided I'd better see Hank and find out where I stood.

High School Frosh Rips Arlington Gridders, 19-0

KHS Dominates Season Opener

Displaying tremendous early season power, Kingston High school's freshman football squad routed the Arlington frosh 19-0 yesterday in the Maroons' opener of the season.

Coach Jack Gilligan's yearlings played the Dutchess county team off their feet in the one-sided game. Only costly penalties prevented the locals from rolling up a bigger margin. They had two touchdowns called back because of infractions and were charged overall with nine penalties.

Long Marches

The Maroons scored their TDs after long marches. In the first period, they started a drive from their own 46 after guard Milan Peece blocked an Arlington punt. Fullback Ron Nagele turned end for 15 yards and Bob Decker passed to end Terry Kelly to the 20 to set the stage for the score. After several running plays, Nagele culminated the 54 yard maneuver by bucking over from the two.

In the third period, KHS marched about 60 to paydirt with Cliff Miller scoring on a quarterback sneak from the one. Decker, Nagele and Bob Keating did most of the heavy lugging on quick openers and end runs. Decker passed to end Paul Gardner for the extra point and a 13-0 lead.

Later in the same period, Pete Leeds intercepted a pass in KHS territory and raced to midfield to set up the final score. Second-stringers then took over and moved the ball to the seven. Halfback Willie Pritch climbed the drive with a smash through the AHS line to round out the scoring.

AHS Held in Check

Arlington was held in check throughout the contest. Its deepest penetration was to the KHS 35.

Gilligan used his entire 32-man squad and was pleasantly surprised by their early season performance. They played very well for the first game and switched especially good on defense," he said.

Bobby King Annexes Featured Ludlow Pace

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Bobby King, driven by Del MacTavish, scored an easy 2½ length triumph over Willie's Folly in the featured Ludlow Pace before 16,285 at Yonkers Raceway last night.

The win marked the initial success in 22 starts this year for Bobby King who paced the mile in 2:04 4/5 and returned $6.70 for $2.

Willie's Folly, the 3 to 2 favorite, took second by three parts of a length over Gay Dancer.

Cubs Drop Minner

Chicago, Oct. 2 (AP)—Paul Minner, 33, a left-handed pitcher whose neck was fractured in a New York mishap last summer, was released unconditionally by the Chicago Cubs today. The injury was sustained in a fall in his hotel bathtub June 18. The second vertebra was cracked.

Arno Leshin disclosed today that Boyd suffered injury to his gums as well as the two jaw fractures.

FORD IS IN FORM—New York Yankees manager Casey Stengel, a one-time outfielder, can't match the pitching form of his ace lefthander Whitey Ford but for the photographers he is willing to try at Yankee Stadium. Ford will pitch World Series opener against Brooklyn and Casey is hoping the Dodgers' starter, Sal Maglie, can't match him either. (AP Wirephoto)

Sunny Weather Due for Series

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—Mostly sunny weather with seasonably cool temperature in the upper 60s was forecast for today's opening game of the World Series between the Dodgers and Yankees at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn.

The U. S. Weather Bureau expected winds of no more than 10 to 15 miles per hour—not strong enough to have much effect on play.

Constance Fights Beecham Tonight

Miami Beach, Fla., Oct. 3 (AP)—Up-and-coming Jimmy Beecham makes his television debut against ringwise Hector Constance tonight in a 10-round welterweight fight for the Babe Zaharias Cancer Foundation.

The Philadelphia 21-year-old probably will be a slight favorite, mainly because he beat Constance, 25, last December in a match at Caracas, Venezuela. The loser called that decision "atrocious" while Beecham pointed out that, even so, "it sure was unanimous."

Constance, of Trinidad, is an extremely fast counterpuncher. He said he "never makes a prediction" before a fight, but hoped to prove he would whip Beecham.

The fight will be televised and broadcast nationally by ABC, starting at 10 p. m. EDT.

Half the gross gate, after taxes, will be given to the Babe Zaharias Cancer Foundation.

Saugerties Top-Heavy Favorite to Beat Highland Saturday

Sawyers Given Edge on Mark in UCAL Grid Clash

Saugerties High school will be a prohibitive favorite to defeat Highland High in the first crucial UCAL football battle of the season Saturday at Cantine Field. Game time is 2 p. m.

The contest between the spirited rivals is the only one bringing to grips UCAL eleven this weekend. Onteora Central and New Paltz Central both are in action Saturday against non-league foes on foreign battle-grounds.

The Sawyers' sparkling record on the year make them a top-heavy choice. Thus far, Coach Bill Straub's ensemble has rolled up 94 points in crushing two early season rivals. They disposed of Pine Plains, 46-6, in the opener and last weekend trampled Hunter-Tannersville, 48-6.

Highland Won Opener
Meanwhile, the Highlanders started by walloping Roosevelt, 26-14, but then were slowed down to a walk by Foxlane Central of Mt. Kisco, 34-13.

Saugerties will present a well-diversified field running and passing attack that has accounted for 14 touchdowns—an awesome figure. Against the Plainsmen, it rolled up 488 yards net and 341 at the expense of Hunter-Tannersville.

Halfbacks George Neher and Jim Erec have been the top point-getters. Neher has scored five touchdowns, four coming against Pine Plains and Erec, four, including three in the last tussle.

Quarterback Don Whitaker has directed the Sawyers flawlessly and passed for three TDs in their last start. He is also an expert place-kicker, having booted nine out of 11 attempts.

Gersch Highland Hope

Highland is pinning its hopes on halfback Johnny Gersch who has scored half his team's total of six touchdowns. Saugerties is well aware of Gersch's running ability and most-certainly has rigged a defense especially to slow down the elusive senior who ranks with many as the top back in the UCAL.

Coach Bob Relyea is also counting on quarterback Dave Burdash and fullback Bob Valentino to help pull the load. Valentino was a stickout against FDR, knifing over for two second half touchdowns which sewed up the decision. Burdash, a southpaw passer, is rapidly coming into his own despite the fact that he's just a sophomore.

Saugerties boasts a bigger and more experienced line that averages about 175 pounds. Senior end Jon Ash is the heaviest starter, scaling an even 200. The biggest player on the squad is fullback John Dragon who weighs 245. He is also a senior.

Stubborn Foes

Onteora and New Paltz will also be busy facing stubborn opponents in their third starts of the campaign. The Indians are unbeaten, but have been tied once by Cornwall, 14-14. Their victory was over the Huguenots in the school's opener 26-14.

The Huguenots, after losing to Onteora, squeezed by Pine Plains 21-20 in their last start, helped by an offside penalty that cost the Plainsmen the tying point.

Bob Kelly, a halfback, was virtually the whole show, scoring the last touchdown and plunging over for all three extra points. Ralph Williams tallied the first two six-pointers.

Both Onteora and New Paltz will go into their engagements as slight underdogs. Coach Ed Witko's Indians remember the setback of last year "handed them by the upstate eleven and will be out for revenge. Their fortunes rest with the consistent workman-like play of halfback Ted Jensen and side-kick Floyd Boland, a fullback.

Goshen has been mopping up neighboring Orange county

SOME OF THE FORWARD bulwarks of the Kingston High School football varsity line that may be washed up as a player unless he recovers from a hip muscle injury. The 240-pound first baseman said yesterday he is "in constant pain" with a torn muscle that has pressed against the sciatic nerve. "I am not concerned about it now," he said, "but if by next spring I feel the way I am now, I don't see how I can continue to play."

Klu May Retire If Hurt Muscle Fails to Mend

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—Sluggish Ted Kluszewski, the Cincinnati Redlegs' musclemen says he may be washed up as a player unless he recovers from a hip muscle injury.

The 240-pound first baseman said yesterday he is "in constant pain" with a torn muscle that has pressed against the sciatic nerve.

"I am not concerned about it now," he said, "but if by next spring I feel the way I am now, I don't see how I can continue to play."

Klu is here for a meeting of major league player representatives. He said he will not stay for the World Series, but will return to his home in Cincinnati for a "long, complete rest."

The 32-year-old first sacker said that the specialists at Cincinnati and John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore told him that the damaged muscle would mend with rest.

"I have all winter to rest," he said.

The hip trouble first cropped up in spring training this year when he complained of a pulled muscle after fielding a ground ball during infield practice.

Kluszewski, the Reds' all-time home run king, completed his ninth season in the major leagues this year, all spent with Cincinnati. His lifetime batting record includes a .303 average, 245 homers and 865 runs batted in.

Cardinals Buy Toronto Hurler

St. Louis, Oct. 2 (AP)—Lynn Lovenguth, 32-year-old right hander, who led International League pitchers in the 1956 season, has been purchased by the St. Louis Cardinals from Toronto.

Lovenguth, 5-11, and 175 pounds, has had trials with the Philadelphia Phillies the past two springs. He had a 24-12 won-lost record and league-leading 2.59 earned run average this season, completing 25 of 33 starts.

Seek Games

A basketball team to represent the Town of Olive and surrounding area (Olive Bridge, Ashokan, West Shokan and Boiceville) is being organized by Bud Jackson of West Shokan. All players interested are requested to contact Jackson.

teams with ease and as been scored upon just once which is bad news for Coach Ed Farrell and his boys. The county seaters white-washed Monroe-Woodbury 44-0 and routed Highland Falls, 32-6. The boy the Huguenots most stop to win is quarterback Joe Johnson, a cool, precision passer and field general.

Maglie Seeking Third Jewel in Triple Crown

BY WILL GRIMSLEY

Brooklyn, Oct. 3 (AP)—Brooklyn's Sal Maglie is intent on getting a World Series victory because, he says, it would complete his three-point goal.

The goal: To win 20 games in one season in the majors—(he won 23 in 1951 with the New York Giants).

To pitch a no-hit game—(he did against the Phillies Sept. 25 of this year).

To win a World Series game—(he still hasn't done it).

"In 1951 I was supposed to face the Yankees on Sunday, but it rained," he said. "So I went out with some friends and ate spaghetti, perhaps too much."

The next day Joe Di Maggio hit a two-run homer off me in the fifth—and got me out of there for a pinchhitter."

In 1954, in his only other series start, Maglie opened against Cleveland for the Giants but was taken out in the eighth for a pinchhitter, with the score 2-2.

"This year," says Sal hopefully, "no spaghetti and no Di Mag."

Crusty Casey Stengel, manager of the Yankees, is hard to catch with his quips down.

During yesterday's workout, a reporter asked Stengel if he realized that the Yanks had gone 16 innings (since the first inning of the sixth game last year) without scoring a run.

"The mischief," Casey blurted. "We've gone more than that. We had three scoreless innings at Hawaii."

Yankee scouts have told Stengel that he must be more afraid of Maglie than Don Newcombe, the Dodgers' 27-game winner. Newcombe, they say, is pitching "tired ball."

"Maglie's fast ball is much faster," Ed Lopat, the onetime Yankee junkman told Casey, "but his letup pitch isn't worth much any more. He has about as sharp a breaking curve as there is in baseball."

Pee Wee Reese, Brooklyn's veteran shortstop, probably will feel lonesome out there without Phil Rizzuto as an opponent.

Reese and Rizzuto began their World Series rivalry in 1941, played opposing shortstop in six series after that, but Rizzuto has been cast out by the Yankees and will attend the 1956 show as a spectator.

The nomination of Don Newcombe (Brooklyn) and Don Larsen (Yankees) to pitch the second game sent figure filberts rushing to the record books.

Is this the first time two pitchers named "Don" opposed each other as pitchers in the second game of the World Series?—a question as vital as that of the first lefthanded home run over the safety razor sign at 5:48 p. m. in the afternoon.

The Voice of America will broadcast a delayed play-by-play description of the series in Japanese to the 20 million baseball fans in Japan. This should be interesting. How do you describe a Chinese home run in Japanese?

Grid Predictions

Michigan State Slight Choice Over Michigan

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—While studying these predicted winners of this weekend's football games, just remember that the culprit doing the forecasting is the same chap who picked Cincinnati to win the National League pennant.

Last week's lack of upsets brought a score of 42 correct choices out of 48 decisions, an average of .875. That lifted the season's total to 66 of 81 for .815.

This week's winners: Oklahoma over Kansas State; Oh, me! Oh, my!! By as much as the Sooners want to make it.

Spartans Over Wolves

Michigan State over Michigan: It will be close, it will be played at Michigan and Walt Kowolczyk, Michigan State halfback, is injured but the belief is the Spartans will take it, perhaps by only a point.

Ohio State over Stanford: Hopalong Cassidy is gone but the Ohio Staters supposedly are stronger than ever. John Brodie's passing may frighten the Big Ten team but that is all.

Mississippi over Houston: Mississippi has 24 of last year's Cotton Bowl champions.

Texas Christian over Arkansas: Jim Swink carries the Texas Horned Frogs to victory in full view of a nationwide TV audience.

Tennessee Pick
Tennessee over Duke: Johnny

Majors is rated the best running back in Dixie—and he plays for Tennessee.

Also Southern California over Wisconsin; Pittsburgh over California; Army over Penn State; South Carolina over North Carolina; Baylor over Maryland; UCLA over Oregon.

The others—in a hurry:

Friday
Denver over Montana, Miami over Boston College, Hardin Simmons over George Washington.

Saturday

Navy Over Cornell

East: Navy over Cornell, Colgate over Holy Cross, Dartmouth over Penn., Princeton over Columbia, Yale over Brown, Harvard over Tufts.

South: Vanderbilt over Alabama, Auburn over Furman, Florida over Kentucky, Georgia over Mississippi State.

Midwest: Iowa over Oregon State, Minnesota over Purdue, Southern Methodist over Missouri, Northwestern over Tulane, Notre Dame over Indiana.

Southwest: Rice over Louisiana State, Texas A&M over Texas Tech, West Virginia over Texas, Illinois over Washington.

Racing Continues

Regular stock car racing at Victory Speedway in Middletown will continue Saturday night and run every Saturday as long as weather permits. First is 8:30.

Kroll's Brother Wins PGA Title

Endicott, Oct. 3 (AP)—Ed Kroll of the Cooperstown Country Club is the new Central New York State PGA match-play champion.

Kroll won the title yesterday by defeating Larry Bartosek of Skaneateles, 2-up in 18 holes. The tournament was played at the Enjoie Country Club. Kroll defeated Al Morley of the IBM Country Club at Endicott 1-up in 27 holes in the semifinal round. Bartosek advanced to the finals by eliminating Bill Dennis of the host club, 3 and 2.

Kroll is brother to world champion, Ted Kroll, who appeared in an exhibition at Wiltwyck Country Club in September.

The best engineers are those who are attracted by "pioneering projects" . . . assignments which take them to the outer frontiers of aviation and guided missile development . . . and that is one reason Hamilton Standard is attracting outstanding engineers from all over the country. Our present projects deal with such products as starters for today's most advanced jet aircraft . . . jet fuel controls . . . air cycle refrigeration units . . . hydraulic pumps . . . pneumatic valves. Hamilton's entire jet aircraft equipment division has expanded to the point where many career opportunities have opened up for engineers to be in on the "firsts" of aviation. Ez Disqualified In Second Round Of London Bout

London, Oct. 2 (AP)—Dick Richardson, Britain's 22-year-old heavyweight hope, scored a wildly disputed and heavily booed victory over Ezzard Charles to- night when the former world champion was disqualified in the second round for "persistent holding."

A packed house of 11,000 fans in Harringay Arena set up waves of booing and derisive laughter which lasted for five minutes after Referee Frank Wilson had lifted Richardson's hand in victory.

Charles, once a sleek and fast 182 pounds, was a flabby 202 in defeat. Richardson weighed 203½ pounds.

Referee Warns Charles
The referee cautioned Charles for holding three times in the first round and went to the American's corner to warn both Charles and his handlers. The referee halted the fight after two minutes, 29 seconds of the second round.

The defeat was the fourth in six fights this year for the 35-year-old fighter from Cincinnati. Richardson, a Welsh milkman who has been a pro 21 months, had won 16 of 18 fights before tonight, 13 by knockouts.

Not a single blow of any power was struck by either man. Richardson as Charles, each would pin the other's arms until Referee Wilson came over. Then they would go into a flurry of jabbing and dancing.

Three times during the fight Charles broke out in a big grin and his mouthpiece almost fell out while the referee was explaining things to him.

1st Time In 20 Years
Charles, in his dressing room, termed the referee's decision "unbelievable." He said that in 20 years of fighting he had never before been disqualified, and added:

"I considered that I was not holding in any sense and was trying to push Richardson, who was leaning on me."

Richardson said he thought the disqualification was justified.

Charles did a lot of holding, he said, "especially after I had got through his defense with a left hook, which he did not relish."

Charles' purse was automatically withheld pending an investigation by the British Boxing Board of Control.

Local Officials To Attend AHRC Parley in Utica

Legislation as it affects New York States 420,000 mentally retarded will be the main topic to be deliberated at the semi-annual State Convention of the Association for the Help of Retarded Children to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 5-7, 1956, at the Hotel Utica, Utica.

Mrs. Walter Furman, Ulster county AHRC president, Mrs. Donovan Buehring, Ulster county AHRC Adviser to the Board of Directors and Mrs. Frank DeFilippis, county secretary, will represent the local county chapter at the state meeting.

Keynote speaker at the convention will be Dr. R. J. Capobianco, who will discuss "The Status of the Trainable Mentally Retarded." Dr. Capobianco is assistant director of the New York State Research project on severely Retarded Children under the auspices of the State Department of Mental Hygiene. He is also the author of a symposium on Mental Retardation in process of being published by the Vocational Guidance Quarterly. Local representatives are particularly interested in this phase of the program for the convention as the Ulster county AHRC executive board under the chairmanship of Mrs. Buehring are presently conducting a survey designed to point up the need for extending service to "Trainable Children"—those children who fall below the public school's acceptable 50 IQ.

3 Cypriots Held In Bomb Plot

Nicosia, Cyprus, Oct. 3 (AP)—British authorities reported today the arrest of three Greek Cypriots and said they were suspected of planning to bomb a police station at Lefka in north-west Cyprus.

Two other men were arrested later in the same case. The three were picked up near the police station late last night. Officials said they carried a leather case containing bottle type gasoline bombs, fuses and wire with batteries.

It was the first incident reported since late Saturday night in the campaign against British rule over this Mediterranean colony. The rigid house curfew of the Greek section of Nicosia went into its sixth day. Stores, offices, banks and schools were completely shut down in the inner walled city. The 17,000 Greek Cypriots residing in the area were permitted out of doors for two hours—from 12 to 2 p. m.—to buy food from trucks and makeshift stalls set up at control points. For the fourth day, there were no Greek or English language newspapers.

Polio Director Quits

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—Dr. Hart Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for the past 10 years, is resigning. The foundation announced yesterday that Van Riper would leave at the end of the month to join a drug supply house, Geigy Pharmaceuticals, Ardley, N. Y. He will be succeeded by Dr. Thomas M. Rivers, former vice president of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research. Rivers has been closely connected with the development of the Salk anti-polio vaccine.

Release Chaisson On Court Ruling

Otto G. Chaisson, Port Ewen, who was committed to Middletown State Hospital last week under a civil commitment, has been released following a hearing in the matter before Justice Samuel W. Eager at Goshen Monday. Judge Eager held the commitment was "illegal" and did not comply with Section 72 of the Mental Health Law. He held the certificate was insufficient and directed discharge of Chaisson.

Chaisson was committed temporarily under a civil commitment last week following a commitment at the Court House. On Friday John Schick secured a writ of habeas corpus from Justice Harry E. Schrick. On return of the writ before Justice Eager Monday, Schick appeared for Chaisson and Manuel Murcia, an assistant attorney general, appeared for the director of the state hospital. After hearing both counsel and listening to testimony, Justice Eager directed discharge of Chaisson. Under a temporary commitment, Section 72 of the Mental Health Law, a person could be held at the hospital for a period of 60 days pending examination.

Pair Captured Following Second Buffalo Robbery

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Two masked men held up the Coca Cola Bottling Co. office early today in Buffalo's second armed robbery in as many days, but police claimed capture of the men within three hours.

The men escaped with $1,761 from the office safe. But an alert newsboy saw them running from the building at 365 E. Ferry St. and jotted down the license number. Police credited the boy, Frank Williams, 13, with the lead that led to the capture.

The men were not identified pending further investigation. The office manager, Henry Scheuler, 42, of Lockport said he was alone in his second floor office about 6:30 a. m. (EDT) when two armed men wearing white handkerchiefs over their faces entered his office.

Two Still at Large
He said they ordered him at gunpoint to open the safe. After they took the cash, he said, they made him lie on the floor where they bound and gagged him with wide adhesive tape.

Scheuler broke loose a short time later and called police. Yesterday afternoon, three masked gunmen robbed a branch of the Liberty Bank of Buffalo and escaped with cash estimated by bank officials at $25,000.

They were still at large today.

Report Air Battle
Taipei, Oct. 3 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists reported today that four of their F84 Thunderjets battled furiously with four Chinese Communist Mig 17s off the South China coast. The Nationalists claimed two of the Red jets were damaged, one seriously, but that the Nationalist planes returned to their home base unscathed.

Three Robbers Of Buffalo Bank Still at Large

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Three robbers who held up a branch bank here yesterday in a brisk, evidently well-planned raid were still at large today.

Their loot was estimated by bank officials as high as $25,000. The trio, masked and armed, swept into the Linwood Branch of the Liberty Bank of Buffalo about 1:30 p. m. (EDT). They ordered three cashiers, the bank manager and one customer, to lie on the floor while one of them scooped up cash from behind the cages into a canvas bag.

In less than three minutes they darted out and disappeared, covered by a sudden, timely downpour that drove dozens of potential witnesses from the streets.

Meanwhile, police were speeding to the scene, alerted by a bank guard who had touched off a burglar alarm from the basement. He said he had been eating his lunch when he heard an unusual commotion above him and guessed it was a holdup.

Bank officials said it might be several days before the exact loss could be determined.

It was the fourth bank robbery in Buffalo this year. And the 12th in the last 21 months.

There are no mountains in the interior of Australia, which cuts rainfall in that vast arid region to a minimum.

Stepfather Sentenced

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 3 (AP)—Termed "vicious and dangerous" by the judge who sentenced him, George Baltovich, 21, has begun a 5 to 15 year term for beating, burning and biting his 3-year-old stepdaughter. Baltovich, accused of inflicting more than 30 injuries on the little girl, Rose Ann, pleaded guilty to two counts of injury to a child when he was arraigned yesterday before Judge Elmer W. Ryan.

C. K. Loughran Is Honored With Bar Resolution

A resolution in memory of the late Christopher K. Loughran, who served the county of Ulster as county clerk from 1916 to 1921 and later as clerk of the Surrogate's Court, was presented by the Ulster County Bar Association Tuesday morning at the opening of Supreme court. Justice Donald S. Taylor, presiding justice, directed the resolution and remarks of attorneys be entered on the minutes of the court and that when the court recessed in the afternoon, it do so out of memory to Mr. Loughran.

The resolution was presented by John F. Larkin, president of the Ulster County Bar Association, in the absence of Henry Klein chairman of the resolutions committee which include Surrogate John B. Sterley, Judge Andrew J. Cook, Sr., and Floyd Powell.

The resolution referred to the keen legal mind of Mr. Loughran, his devotion to public service and his long years as clerk of the board of supervisors which he served from 1906 to 1915. In 1916 he became county clerk and served in that capacity until 1921. He later was appointed clerk of the surrogate's court.

Floyd W. Powell spoke to the resolution and moved for its adoption. Justice Taylor expressed his sympathy, directed the resolution be made a part of the minutes of the court and that a copy be sent to the family and court, when it adjourned today do so out of respect to the memory of Mr. Loughran who as county clerk and as an attorney had been a part of the court for years.
